

AFFIDAVIT OF CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

I, Tom Milner, being duly sworn, do hereby depose and state:

1. I am a police officer with the Samson Park Police Department, having been so employed since April 2004. I am assigned duties including investigations involving the sexual exploitation of children, child pornography, and other crimes in the Northern District of Texas and elsewhere. I have gained expertise in conducting these investigations through training in seminars and classes and through daily work related to handling these types of cases. These investigations include violations of sexual exploitation of children pursuant to Title 18, U.S.C. § 2422. As a law enforcement officer, I am authorized to investigate violations of laws of the United States and to execute arrest warrants issued under the authority of the United States.

2. This affidavit sets forth facts and suggests reasonable inferences from those facts, establishing that there is probable cause to believe that on or about April 30, 2008, in the Northern District of Texas, Randall WOLFORD (WOLFORD) used a facility or means of interstate commerce to knowingly attempt to persuade, induce or entice a person under the age of 18 years of age to engage in sexual acts, in violation of Enticement of a Child, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2422.

3. The information contained in this affidavit is from Affiant's personal knowledge of the described investigation and from information obtained from other law enforcement agents, including Tarrant County District Attorney's Office computer forensic examiner Kyle Gibson.

YAHOO SERVICES, INC.

4. Yahoo Services, Inc., (Yahoo!), whose corporate offices are located at 701 First Avenue, Sunnyvale, CA, 94085, is a commercial computer service company that provides services to Internet users that include e-mail, Groups, Internet search capability, games, personal ads, chat, instant messaging, and other services. Many of the services offered by Yahoo! are free to the user. Yahoo! offers search features as well as multiple links to many web sites both inside and outside of the Yahoo! domain. In addition, Yahoo! provides users access to a free Internet based Email account.

5. Users of certain Yahoo! services are required to register with Yahoo! to obtain a Yahoo! ID. A Yahoo! ID is a unique identifier of a user's account. The registration process requires the selection of an ID (sometimes referred to as a screen name, Login Name, or profile), a password, and the voluntary supply of some personal information. This process is completed on line. Up to six profiles can be associated with a single Yahoo! ID. These profiles are also known as "aliases" and allow the user to appear as someone other than their Yahoo! ID when using certain Yahoo! services. Other users of the service may be able to view the profile information. Yahoo! ID registration and profile information is supplied by the user and is not verified by Yahoo!.

6. When a user signs up for this service, or any Yahoo! service requiring a unique user identity, Yahoo! maintains the Internet Protocol (IP) address from which the account originated. The input information, along with user settings and the original IP address for the unique screen name are also maintained by Yahoo!. Once a unique screen name is assigned, the Yahoo! user can then send and receive Electronic Mail by logging on to Yahoo!'s servers. Messages sent and received by the Yahoo! user pass through, and are stored on servers maintained by Yahoo!. These messages are then downloaded by the Yahoo! user to read, or passed outside of the Yahoo! domain to the intended recipient. Logs and copies of traffic across Yahoo!'s servers are maintained for a set period of time determined by the system administrators at Yahoo!.

7. Yahoo! also offers two real-time communication methods called Yahoo! Instant Messenger (IM) and Yahoo! Chat. IM is a one-on-one conversation tool that affords two Yahoo! users a private forum to type messages back and forth in real time. The use of Yahoo! unique screen names allows a user to identify other users. Users who wish to converse via IM can elect to place another user on his or her "Buddy list," to expedite setting up a later conversation. Yahoo! Chat is a similar, real-time communication method between Yahoo! unique screen names, however this is designed for group conversations. Multiple Yahoo! users can access a variety of chat rooms maintained on Yahoo! computers and managed by Yahoo!.

8. Yahoo! Photos is a free service that allows a Yahoo! user to upload, store and share photographs with other Yahoo! members in different photo albums associated with the user's account. A user can configure his or her account to allow any member of Yahoo! to view the contents of an album, or to block or otherwise restrict access to the album. Yahoo! provides the Internet access in order to conduct the online chatting within the Yahoo! website. Yahoo! is a facility or means of interstate or foreign commerce since the Internet is used to conduct online conversations.

INVESTIGATION

9. On or about March 20th, 2008, while using an Internet-connected computer, Sgt. Tom Milner, operating in an undercover capacity, entered a Yahoo! chat room posing as a thirteen (13) year old female by the name of Jennifer Easley and using the email address of Tahgoodgirl12@yahoo.com. Sgt. Milner entered the Romance category of chat rooms. Shortly after entering the chat room, several individuals began instant messaging Sgt. Milner. One of those individuals was lighmanntx@yahoo.com.

10. Lighmanntx started the conversation by asking where Jennifer Easley was from. After telling the defendant that Jennifer was from Ft. Worth, lighmanntx accused Jennifer of working for Perverted Justice or being law enforcement.

11. Sgt. Milner repeatedly denied being law enforcement and continued to chat with the defendant. The defendant only continued to chat once Sgt. Milner stated that he had chatted online with other men before and received sexually graphic images from these other men. Lighmanntx appears as “just mee” during the chat conversations. The following is an excerpt from the chat conversation:

just mee (312012008 9:34:19 PM): would it be because you are workin for one of the law enforcement agencies just mee (312012008 9:34:28 PM): or maybe even preverted justis
just mee (312012008 9:34:39 PM): or one of the many ohter watch dog groups Jennifer Easley (312012008 9:34:57 PM): no just mee (312012008 9:35:10 PM): you know girls your age should not be an are not allowed on the chat sites
Jennifer Easley (312012008 9:35:17 PM): just curious why is everyone so paranoid of dateline crap
Jennifer Easley (312012008 9:35:28 PM): sorry to bother u just mee (312012008 9:35:30 PM): that just saying anything to you is a felony just mee (312012008 9:35:51 PM): cause they ruin peoples lives with their shit just mee (312012008 9:36:09 PM): more than if the person killed someone Jennifer Easley (312012008 9:36:09 PM): ok
Jennifer Easley (312012008 9:36:15 PM): no way

just mee (312012008 9:38:48 PM): or getting all the mexican out of our country

12. However, after less than two hours of online chatting with who he thought was a thirteen year old girl, the conversation turns sexual in nature when the defendant wants the undercover officer to give details on a prior sexual encounter with another man.

13. At that point, the defendant states that he “would like to do the very same to you” and that he “wants to rub you and show you how it feels to have a tongue on it”.

14. Three days later on March 23rd, 2008, lighmanntx contacts the undercover officer online. During this chat lighmanntx wishes the thirteen (13) year old a happy Easter and forwards information about a website to view a video of a girl using a hairbrush in a sexually graphic way.

15. On March 24th, 2008, lighmanntx contacts the undercover officer. During this conversation, lighmanntx offers to send a webcam to the undercover officer. Lighmanntx stated that he would enjoy seeing her on camera and could send her a webcam from a supply company in order to avoid any suspicion from her mother. Lighmanntx also stated that he would not meet anyone without first seeing them on a webcam. Later during this same conversation, the defendant displayed a webcam video of himself masturbating. Sgt. Milner was able to save a still image of the chat with the video running. The following excerpt is from the online conversation between the defendant and Sgt. Milner:

just mee (312412008 2:02:17 PM): would enjoy seeing ya on cam before we meet tho just mee (312412008 2:02:26 PM): that is if we do meet

16. It is after this conversation that the first meeting between the defendant and the thirteen year old is scheduled to take place. The defendant even at one point states that she could stay home sick from school one day when her mother is working but that they would have to talk prior to the meet. The reason why a phone call must take place is that the defendant is attempting to verify the child's age:

just nree (312412008 9:29:01 PM): well it can happen if you REALLY want it to just nree (312412008 9:29:30 PM): have to think of how we can make it all work an all Jennifer Easley (312412008 9:29:48 PM): ok

Jennifer Easley (312412008 9:33:48 PM): I could do that

17. During the same conversation on March 24th, 2008, the defendant states that he does not want to find out that she is working for a law enforcement agency and later states that he wants a nude picture of her to prove that she is not law enforcement:

Jennifer Easley (312412008 9:54:11 PM): I am cautious is all just nree (312412008 9:54:41 PM): an I am too Jen just nree (312412008 9:55:04 PM): I don't want to find out you are working for some agency or something just nree (312412008 10:02:19 PM): just as I sent you that pic

18. Five minutes after the defendant requests a nude picture of the thirteen year old girl he then states in graphic detail what sexual acts he would perform on her when they meet:

just mree (312412008 10:05:13 PM): if it is sex you want that is ok

In addition to the planned meeting at a later date, this is one example of the conversations between the defendant and the undercover which is an attempt by the defendant to persuade, induce or entice the underage child to engage in sexual activity for which any person can be charged with a criminal offense within the state of Texas.

19. On March 30th, 2008, lighmanntx once again contacts the undercover officer online. This conversation starts with trying to step a meeting but the defendant again states that he will not meet until they talk on the phone.

20. On March 31st, April 4th, April 9th, April 10th and April 11th, 2008, lighmanntx contacts the undercover officer and a meeting is again discussed.

21. On April 14, 2008, lighmanntx contacted the undercover officer and provided his phone number in order for "Jennifer", the thirteen year old girl, to call him to verify her age. Later, this phone number would be the verified as the same phone number being used by the defendant, when his phone is seized following his arrest.

22. On April 15, 2008, a Sansom Park Police Department employee called the phone number given by the defendant. The officer was posing a thirteen year old girl named Jennifer and the phone conversation was recorded. The phone conversation was cryptic in nature with the defendant not wanting to get into any sexual details.

23. After the phone conversation, that same day and on April 16th, 2008, lighmanntx attempted to contact the undercover officer online.

24. On April 17th, 2008, lighmanntx leaves an online message to the undercover officer stating that he had been thinking about her a lot but that he did not think he could meet as they had planned because there was too much at stake.

25. However, less than a week later, on April 23rd, 2008, lighmanntx contacted the undercover officer to set up a meeting at a McDonald's in Ft. Worth. The defendant stated that he would have a drink waiting for her in his vehicle.

24. On April 25th, 2008, lighmanntx failed to show up at the scheduled meet time and stated that he had been in a car wreck. Another meeting was set for April 30th, 2008, at the same McDonald's restaurant in Ft. Worth, Texas.

25. The same Samson Park Police Department employee that made the phone call to the defendant was dropped off a block away from the McDonald's thirty minutes prior to the scheduled meeting. As she was entering the McDonald's the defendant drove up to her and stopped. She was wearing the clothing Sgt. Milner had previously stated during an online chat that she would be wearing.

26. The defendant stated, "Hey, Jen... over here, get in". The undercover officer then stated that she had to use the restroom and that she would be right back.

27. The defendant then left the area and was arrested following a short car chase.

28. Once the defendant was secured, observed inside his vehicle was a large drink in the passenger cup holder that the defendant had previously stated he would have waiting for her and a GPS unit with the McDonald's location and directions entered into the GPS unit. Pictures of these items are provided within this affidavit.

29. The driver of the vehicle was identified as Randall Howard Wolford. After waiving his Miranda rights, he stated he realized at that time that there was no girl and that he had been chatting with an undercover officer. WOLFORD also admitted that the sexually graphic images that were sent to the undercover officer were in fact him.

30. A search of the defendant's computer revealed the online chats with the undercover officer as well as images of child pornography.

31. I confirmed the address and name of the defendant by using online records for Tarrant County, Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) and by using physical surveillance.

32. During the course of the investigation, Sgt. Milner discovered that the defendant had committed similar acts a few years ago when he attempted to meet another underage girl and was caught in a sting operation conducted by Perverted Justice and NBC's Dateline television show.

CONCLUSION

33. Based on the foregoing facts and circumstances, I respectfully submit that there is probable cause to believe that on or about April 30, 2008, the defendant Randall Wolford knowingly used a facility or means of interstate commerce to knowingly attempt to persuade, induce, entice, or coerce a person under the age of 18 years of age to engage in sexual acts, in violation of Enticement of a Child, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2422.
